

Step by Step guide for setting up forms in Promptchat

Promptchat has a built in form builder which allows users to create all sorts of forms and send them to website visitors either during a live chat session or use them for Automatic Sending when offline. (Great for sales lead generation). Some of the popular uses of these forms are, Newsletter registration, Appointment scheduling, Voucher downloads, Review form, questionnaires) This manual will guide you through the process of creating a form;

- 1) Log in to your Promptchat account and navigate to Administration/Forms. Click to create a new form. Fill in the Name of the form, title, Intro, Sent, Open message and enter the fields you want to request your website visitor to fill in (in the below example, I ask for a name and email address):

2) Define the type of the field here.

Where do these forms go to? How do I retrieve them?

At this stage, you can now push this Form to your website visitor in manual mode by clicking it from this drop down menu (same place where the canned messages are):

You may assign these forms to an Automatically Opening chatbox too. So when no operators are logged in, the forms can still go out to website visitors – potentially generating you signups, registrations, feedback etc... Here is how you enter this form to automatically display in the chatbox;

Go to Administration/Chatboxes menu and scroll down to Auto open Message. Paste the form here;
